Reigning champion qualifies automatically plus top 15 from order of merit league. Players failing to appear, substitutes will apply only in first round. In the event of a tie, the player who has played in more qualifying rounds will go through round, if still tied the lowest par average counts. The draw is numerical as per The Council Of National Golf Unions recommended system for matching players as well as the handicaps. The handicap will be the full difference between the two players awarded to the higher handicap.
